Prayers

Opening Prayer A

Let us pray.

Father,

you have made the bond of marriage a holy mystery,
a symbol of Christ's love for his Church.

Hear our prayers for N. and N.

With faith in you and in each other they pledge their love today.

May their lives always bear witness to the reality of that love.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Opening Prayer B

Let us pray.

Father, when you created humanity,

you willed that man and wife should be one.

Bind N. and N. in the loving union of marriage and make their love fruitful so that they may be living witnesses to your divine love in the world.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Opening Prayer C

Let us pray.

Father, hear our prayers for N. and N.,

who today are united in marriage before your altar.

Give them your blessing, and strengthen their love for each other.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Opening Prayer D

Let us pray.

Almighty God, hear our prayers for N. and N.,
who have come here today to be united in the sacrament of marriage.

Increase their faith in you and in each other,
and through them bless your Church (with Christian children).

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Liturgy of the Sacrament

Introduction to the Giving of Consent [A]

My dear friends, you have come together in this church so that the Lord may seal and strengthen your love in the presence of the Church's minister and this community. Christ abundantly blesses this love. He has already consecrated you in baptism and now he enriches and strengthens you by a special sacrament so that you may assume the duties of marriage in mutual and lasting fidelity. And so, in the presence of the Church, I ask you to state your intentions.

Introduction to the Giving of Consent [B]

N. and N. the promise you make to each other today is serious, because it will bind you together for life in a relationship so close and so intimate that it will profoundly influence your whole future. That future, with its hopes and disappointments, its successes and its failures, its pleasures and its pains, its joys and its sorrows, is hidden from your eyes. You know that these elements are mingled in every life and are to be expected in your own. And so, not knowing what is before you, but trusting in God's companionship, you take each other through the best and worst of what lies ahead, until death. I now invite you to join hands, and commit yourselves to each other forever.

Questions (only 1 form)

N. and N. have you come together freely and without reservation to give yourselves to each other in marriage?

Yes, we have.

Will you love and honour each other as husband and wife for the rest of your lives?

Yes, we will.

Will you accept children lovingly from God and bring them up according to the law of Christ and His Church?

Yes, we will.

Since it is your intention to enter into marriage, join your hands and declare your consent before God, your family and friends.

Giving of Consent A

The bridegroom says:

I, N., take you, N., to be my wife. I promise to be true to you in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health. I will love you and honour you all the days of my life.

The bride says:

I, N., take you, N., to be my husband. I promise to be true to you in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health. I will love you and honour you all the days of my life.

Giving of Consent B

The bridegroom says:

I, N., take you, N., for my lawful wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part.

The bride says:

I, N., take you, N., for my lawful husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part.

Giving of Consent C

The priest asks the bridegroom:

N. do you take N. to be your wife? Do you promise to be true to her in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health, to love her and honour her all the days of your life?

The bridegroom: I do.

Then he asks the bride:

N., do you take N. to be your husband? Do you promise to be true to him in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health, to love him and honour him all the days of your life?

The bride: I do.

Declaration

*You have declared your consent before your families and friends and God.
May the Lord strengthen your consent, and fill you both with His blessings.
What has been joined by God's blessing, no one must divide.*

Nuptial Blessing A

My dear friends, let us turn to the Lord and pray that he will bless with his grace this woman (or N.)
now married in Christ to this man (or N.)
and that (through the sacrament of the body and blood of Christ,) he will unite in love the couple he has joined in this holy bond.

Father,

by your power you have made everything out of nothing.

In the beginning you created the universe and made mankind in your own likeness.

You gave man the constant help of woman so that man and woman should no longer be two, but one flesh, and you teach us that what you have united may never be divided.

Father,

by your plan man and woman are united,
and married life has been established as the one blessing that was not forfeited by original sin or washed away in the flood.

Look with love upon this woman, your daughter,
now joined to her husband in marriage.

She asks your blessing.

Give her the grace of love and peace.

May she always follow the example of the holy women whose praises are sung in the scriptures.

May her husband put his trust in her and recognise that she is his equal and the heir with him to the life of grace.

May he always honour her and love her as Christ loves his bride, the Church.

Father,

keep them always true to your commandments.

Keep them faithful in marriage and let them be living examples of Christian life.

Give them the strength which comes from the gospel so that they may be witnesses of Christ to others.

(Bless them with children and help them to be good parents. May they live to see their children's children.)

And, after a happy old age, grant them fullness of life with the saints
in the kingdom of heaven.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Nuptial Blessing B

Let us pray to the Lord for N. and N., who come to God's altar at the beginning of their married life so that they may always be united in love for each other (as now they share in the body and blood of Christ).

Holy Father, you created mankind in your own image and made man and woman to be joined as husband and wife in union of body and heart and so fulfil their mission in this world.

Father,
to reveal the plan of your love,
you made the union of husband and wife
an image of the covenant between you and your people.

In the fulfilment of this sacrament,
the marriage of Christian man and woman is a sign of the marriage between Christ and the Church.

Father, stretch out your hand, and bless N. and N.

Lord,
grant that as they begin to live this sacrament they may share with each other the gifts of your love and become one in heart and mind
as witnesses to your presence in their marriage.

Help them to create a home together (and give them children to be formed by the gospel and to have a place in your family).

Give your blessings to N., your daughter,
so that she may be a good wife (and mother),
caring for the home,
faithful in love for her husband,
generous and kind.

Give your blessings to N., your son,
so that he may be a faithful husband (and a good father).

Father,
grant that as they come together to your table on earth, so they may one day have the joy of sharing your feast in heaven,
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Nuptial Blessing C

My dear friends, let us ask God for his continued blessings upon this bridegroom and his bride (or N. and N.).

Holy Father,
creator of the universe,
maker of man and woman in your own likeness,
source of blessing for married life,
we humbly pray to you for this woman who today is united with her husband in this sacrament of marriage.

May your fullest blessing come upon her and her husband so that they may together rejoice in your gift of married love (and enrich your Church with their children).

Lord,
may they both praise you when they are happy and turn to you in their sorrows.

May they be glad that you help them in their work and know that you are with them in their need.

May they pray to you in the community of the Church, and be your witnesses in the world.

May they reach old age in the company of their friends, and come at last to the kingdom of heaven.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

and give us all your fatherly aid.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Lord, we who have shared the food of your table
pray for our friends N. and N., whom you have joined together in marriage.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayer after Communion E
